GENERAL INVESTIGATIVE DIVISION

Attached sets forth summary of investigation of the Media, Pa., RA burglary. Xerox officials advised 4/19/71 that 4 specimens of Xerox documents are believed to have been reproduced on Xerox Model 2400 copier. Two of these documents appear to have been copied on same machine described as having a drum defect, which is reproduced every third copy. Efforts will be made to locate this Xerox Model 2400 and to determine locations having both Xerox Model 2400 and 660 copiers.

FBI Laboratory unable to identify IBM Selectric and Remington elite typewriters used to prepare documents originated by unknown subjects since specimens submitted are photocopies and not original machine impressions.

Intensive investigation continuing at Philadelphia to identify unknown subjects.

Result of examination:

The typewriter impressions on the envelopes, Q156 and Q163, and the letters, Q157 and Q164, most closely resemble the Laboratory standard for Ransmayer style of type. This same style of type was used in the preparation of the envelope, Q1, previously submitted in this case. However, due to the limited nature of the typewriter impressions on Q1, it could not be determined whether one typewriter was used in the preparation of these specimens.

The accompanying copies appear to be copies prepared on an SCM copier. No watermarks, indented writing of value, or other marks which would indicate the immediate source of this material were noted on the submitted copies. The stamps on the envelopes, Q156 and Q163, are from a sheet or sheets of stamps.

Q164 throughhQ167 are being returned to Philadelphia. The remaining submitted evidence will be returned separately. Photographs are retained.

RE: Philadelphia Airtel 4/14/71.

Referenced communication enclosed copies of news release circulated by Unsubs beginning "On the night of March 8, 1971....."

It was reviewed by the New Haven Office personnel familiar with material emanating from Anti-War, Anti-Draft, Anti-Law enforcement and EASTCON sources. Also selected writings by [redacted] PHILIP BERRIGAN and [redacted] were reviewed without spotting pertinent similarities.

However, it's the NHO's opinion that it was carefully prepared by intelligent intellectual persons. It is not couched in legal phrases.

The phraseology in the last paragraph tends to indicate the authors of the document are either or both social workers and clergy.

STUDENTS FOR A DEMOCRATIC SOCIETY

Students for a Democratic Society, commonly known as SDS, came into existence at a founding convention held during June, 1962, at Port Huron, Michigan. From an initial posture of "participatory democracy," Marxist-Leninist ideology of various shadings became predominant during 1968 - 1969 with debate centering on how best to create a revolutionary youth movement. SDS moved from involvement in the civil rights struggle to an anti-Vietnam war position to advocacy of a militant anti-imperialist line linking up the oppressed peoples of Asia, Africa and Latin America with the black liberation movement in the United States. All major factions within SDS embrace Marxism-Leninism and identify internationally with China, Cuba and North Vietnam as countries leading the worldwide struggles against the United States. However, the Soviet Union was regarded as imperialist and with the Communist Party, United States of America, "revisionist" in nature.

SDS operated under a national constitution which called for an annual National Convention (NC) and quarterly National Council meetings wherein programs were initiated and debated. Three national officers were elected annually with a National Interim Committee to run the organization. Regional offices and college chapters elected delegates to the national meetings but each functioned independently on local matters. Its official publication "Fire" (formerly "New Left Notes") last appeared in December, 1969.

Internal factionalism of serious proportions developed during 1968 - 1969 and the following three factions evolved as a result of a split at the June, 1969, NC: Weatherman, Worker Student Alliance (WSA), and Revolutionary Youth Movement (RYM). The effect of the split on SDS chapters throughout the country was divisive. Some aligned with one or the other of the three major factions. Others, unable to identify with any faction, disassociated with SDS completely and changed names.

The SDS national office in recent years was located at 1608 West Madison Street, Chicago, Illinois. It was closed in February, 1970.

The Weatherman and RYM groups no longer consider themselves associated with SDS, and the WSA group refers to itself as the true SDS.

WORKER STUDENT ALLIANCE/
PROGRESSIVE LABOR PARTY

A source advised during August, 1969, that at the National Convention (NC) of Students for a Democratic Society (SDS) held in Chicago, Illinois, during June, 1969, a split arose between the Progressive Labor Party (PLP) and the National Office (NO), the NO becoming known as the Weatherman faction. The PLP faction drew the largest support among those in attendance at the NC.

Source further advised that during late Summer, 1969, the PLP faction of SDS established its National Headquarters (NH) on the second floor of a loft-type building at 173A Massachusetts Avenue, Boston, Massachusetts. The campaign on which the PLP faction centered was to build a worker student alliance or a campus worker student alliance. Thus, they adopted the names of Worker Student Alliance (WSA) or Campus Worker Student Alliance. 4

A second source advised during January, 1970, that within the SDS, the WSA is a caucus of which the PLP constitutes the leadership.

A third source advised during July, 1970, that during demonstrations staged in the Boston area during the Spring and Summer of 1970 by the NH, the main theme of previous demonstrations staged by the NH shifted from protestations of the Vietnam War and other United States foreign policy matters to attacking domestic issues such as racism and unemployment and demonstrating support of the "workers" struggle."

PROGRESSIVE LABOR PARTY

"The New York Times" city edition, Tuesday, April 20, 1965, page 27, reported that a new party of "revolutionary socialism" was formally founded on April 18, 1965, under the name of the Progressive Labor Party (PLP) which had been known as the Progressive Labor Movement.

According to the article, "The Progressive Labor Movement was founded in 1962 by Milton Rosen and Mortimer Scheer after they were expelled from the Communist Party of the United States for assertedly following the Chinese Communist line."

A source advised on June 3, 1968, that the PLP held its Second National Convention in New York City, May 31 to June 2, 1968, at which time the PLP reasserted its objective of the establishment of a militant working class movement based on Marxism-Leninism.

The source also advised that at the Second National Convention Milton Rosen was unanimously reelected National Chairman of the PLP and Levi Laub, Fred Jerome, Jared Israel, William Epton, Jacob Rosen, Jeffrey Gordon, and Walter Linder were elected as the National Committee to lead the PLP until the next convention.

The PLP publishes "Progressive Labor," a bimonthly magazine, and "Challenge-Desafio," a monthly newspaper.

Source advised on May 25, 1970, that the PLP utilizes an address of General Post Office Box 808, Brooklyn, New York, and also utilizes an office in Room 617, 1 Union Square West, New York, New York.

WEATHERMAN

Initially called the "Action Faction," Weatherman came into being immediately before the June, 1969, Students for a Democratic Society (SDS) National Convention (NC). At this NC Weatherman won all three national officer positions and a majority of the National Interim Committee as well. Subsequently, they took over the SDS National Office (NO) in Chicago, and controlled its funds, paper and national records. Although internal struggle existed until late 1969, Weatherman for all major purposes controlled SDS nationally from June, 1969, until its NO closed in February, 1970. At this time it no longer considered itself part of SDS.

The term Weatherman emerged from an ideological paper prepared by its leaders entitled "You Don't Need a Weatherman to Know Which Way the Wind Blows." ("New Left Notes" June 18, 1969). This statement outlined the basic stance of Weatherman: Marxist-Leninist in content but with strong advocacy that action not theory would bring about revolution in the United States. This posture was complemented with an international identification to the Cuban revolution and Castro's statement that the duty of a revolutionary is to make revolution.

During October, 1969, Weatherman riots in Chicago resulted in more than 260 arrests for mob action and related charges. A program of armed struggle was finalized during a December, 1969, "War Council" wherein terrorist tactics and political assassination were contemplated. The basic strength of Weatherman was then revealed to be some 300 - 350 nationally and geographically apportioned to the Midwest, New York, and some Northwest.

As its rhetoric of violence escalated, Weatherman leaders increasingly discussed the necessity of an underground operation wherein more than 90 per cent of the organization would be submerged; "affinity groups" of three - five members would function independently. In February, 1970, Weatherman leaders announced a program of "strategic sabotage" with police and military installations as primary targets.

In February, 1970, Weatherman abandoned the SDS NO, 1608 West Madison Street, Chicago, Illinois, and throughout the country entered an underground status.

REVOLUTIONARY YOUTH MOVEMENT

A source advised that the Revolutionary Youth Movement II (RYMII) faction of Students for a Democratic Society (SDS) held a national conference at Atlanta, Georgia, from November 26 to 30, 1969. At this conference it was decided to form a new organization to be known as Revolutionary Youth Movement (RYM), characterized as a mass anti-imperialist youth organization, said organization being proposed as separate and distinct in form and content from SDS. The "Principles of Unity" adopted by the conference included a struggle against white supremacy and male supremacy; fights against imperialism, anticommunism, fascism and oppression of youth; and support of the right of self-determination of all "oppressed nations," also support of the right of all "oppressed and exploited" peoples "to armed self-defense." It was agreed that RYM would not be a Marxist-Leninist organization; however, source said this was decided in order to indicate an organization broad enough in form to be acceptable to everyone. A temporary National Steering Committee (NSC) made up of eight females and two males was elected to govern RYM until national officers could be elected during the Spring of 1970.

RYM publications have listed the RYM National Office (NO) at Post Office Box 5421 and Post Office Box 77012 C, both Atlanta, Georgia, and a second source has advised that the NO has no office space but would probably be considered as located at Apartment 27, 1067 Alta Avenue, Northeast, Atlanta.

Second source advised that women dominated the founding conference and have continued to dominate NSC meetings to the point that "women's liberation" has apparently become the RYM's principal issue - also that RYM's poor financial condition has resulted in its failure to publish a paper. During early 1970, RYM has decided to cater to the working class rather than youth, since the potential for social revolution lies in workers.

A third source has stated that it was decided at the March, 1970, NSC meeting that RYM women had decided the organization will be molded into a "working class, Marxist-Leninist, revolutionary, anti-imperialist, problack nationalist, people's women's liberation organization."

BLACK PANTHER PARTY,
also known as
Black Panther Party for Self Defense

According to the official newspaper of the Black Panther Party (BPP), the BPP was started during December, 1966, in Oakland, California, to organize black people so they can take control of the life, politics, and the destiny of the black community. It was organized by Bobby G. Seale, BPP Chairman, and Huey P. Newton, Minister of Defense, BPP.

The official newspaper, called "The Black Panther," regularly states that the BPP advocates the use of guns and guerrilla tactics in its revolutionary program to end oppression of the black people. Residents of the black community are urged to arm themselves against the police who are consistently referred to as "pigs" who should be killed. 4

The newspaper, in its issue of September 7, 1968, had an article by the then Minister of Education, George Murray, This article ended with the following:

"Black men. Black people, colored persons of America, revolt everywhere! Arm yourselves. The only culture worth keeping is revolutionary culture. Change. Freedom everywhere. Dynamite! Black power. Use the gun. Kill the pigs everywhere."

The BPP newspaper, issue of October 5, 1968, had an article introduced with the following statement: "We will not dissent from American government. We will overthrow it."

David Hilliard, Chief of Staff, BPP, in a speech at the San Francisco Polo Field on November 15, 1969, said "We will kill Richard Nixon."

David Hilliard, in "The New York Times," issue of December 13, 1969, was quoted as follows: "We advocate the very direct overthrow of the government by way of force and violence."

"The only way to make this racist US government administer justice to the people it is oppressing, isby taking up arms against this government, killing the officials, until the reactionary forcesare dead, and those that are left turn their weapons on their superiors, thereby passing revolutionary judgement against the number one enemy of all mankind, the racist U. The BPP Headquarters is located at 1046 Peralta Street, Oakland, California. Branches of the BPP, and Committees to Combat Fascism, under control of the BPP, have been established in various locations in the USA.

WORKERS WORLD PARTY

On April 17, 1959, a source advised that on February 12, 1959, a Socialist Workers Party (SWP) minority group under the leadership of National Committee member Sam Ballan split from the SWP.

The source stated that this minority group, referred to as the Marcyites, after many years of program and policy differences on varied issues concerning tactics and interpretation of political events, split from the SWP on the grounds that the Party was liquidating itself by departing from the Marxist precepts of Leon Trotsky and retreating from the fight for the world socialist revolution. The final issue which ultimately forced the split was the minority's opposition to the SWP regroupment policy which involved cooperation with the Communist Party (CP) periphery individuals characterized by the minority as petty bourgeois.

The minority program, according to the source, advocated unconditional defense of the Soviet Union and has as its goal the building of a revolutionary party with a complete proletarian orientation for the purpose of overthrowing capitalism in the United States and throughout the world.

On May 12, 1960, source advised that this minority group had chosen the name Workers World Party.

On May 1, 1970, a second source advised that the Workers World Party, which maintains headquarters at 46 West 21st Street, New York, New York, supports the People's Republic of China in its ideological dispute with the Soviet Union, but at the same time has called for a peaceful solution to recent Sino-Soviet border disputes.

The SWP has been designated pursuant to Executive Order 10450.

Others, unable to identify with any faction, disassociated with SDS completely and changed names.

The SDS national office in recent years was located at 1608 West Madison Street, Chicago, Illinois. It was closed in February, 1970.

The Weatherman and RYM groups no longer consider themselves associated with SDS, and the WSA group refers to itself as the true SDS.

PROGRESSIVE LABOR PARTY

A source advised during August, 1969, that at the National Convention (NC) of Students for a Democratic Society (SDS) held in Chicago, Illinois, during June, 1969, a split arose between the Progressive Labor Party (PLP) and the National Office (NO), the NO becoming known as the Weatherman faction. The PLP faction drew the largest support among those in attendance at the NC.

Source further advised that during late Summer, 1969, the PLP faction of SDS established its National Headquarters (NH) on the second floor of a loft-type building at 173A Massachusetts Avenue, Boston, Massachusetts. The campaign on which the PLP faction centered was to build a worker student alliance or a campus worker student alliance. Thus, they adopted the names of Worker Student Alliance (WSA) or Campus Worker Student Alliance.

A second source advised during January, 1970, that within the SDS, the WSA is a caucus of which the PLP constitutes the leadership.

A third source advised during July, 1970, that during demonstrations staged in the Boston area during the Spring and Summer of 1970 by the NH, the main theme of previous demonstrations staged by the NH shifted from protestations of the Vietnam War and other United States foreign policy matters to attacking domestic issues such as racism and unemployment and demonstrating support of the "workers" struggle."

PROGRESSIVE LABOR PARTY

"The New York Times" city edition, Tuesday, April 20, 1965, page 27, reported that a new party of "revolutionary socialism" was formally founded on April 18, 1965, under the name of the Progressive Labor Party (PLP) which had been known as the Progressive Labor Movement. 4

According to the article, "The Progressive Labor Movement was founded in 1962 by Milton Rosen and Mortimer Scheer after they were expelled from the Communist Party of the United States for assertedly following the Chinese Communist line."

A source advised on June 3, 1968, that the PLP held its Second National Convention in New York City, May 31 to June 2, 1968, at which time the PLP reasserted its objective of the establishment of a militant working class movement based on Marxism-Leninism.

The source also advised that at the Second National Convention Milton Rosen was unanimously reelected National Chairman of the PLP and Levi Laub, Fred Jerome, Jared Israel, William Epton, Jacob Rosen, Jeffrey Gordon, and Walter Linder were elected as the National Committee to lead the PLP until the next convention.

The PLP publishes "Progressive Labor," a bimonthly magazine, and "Challenge-Desafio," a monthly newspaper.

Source advised on May 25, 1970, that the PLP utilizes an address of General Post Office Box 808, Brooklyn, New York, and also utilizes an office in Room 617, 1 Union Square West, New York, New York.

WEATHERMAN

Initially called the "Action Faction," Weatherman came into being immediately before the June, 1969, Students for a Democratic Society (SDS) National Convention (NC). At this NC Weatherman won all three national officer positions and a majority of the National Interim Committee as well. Subsequently, they took over the SDS National Office (NO) in Chicago, and controlled its funds, paper and national records. Although internal struggle existed until late 1969, Weatherman for all major purposes controlled SDS nationally from June, 1969, until its NO closed in February, 1970. At this time it no longer considered itself part of SDS.

The term Weatherman emerged from an ideological paper prepared by its leaders entitled "You Don't Need a Weatherman to Know Which Way the Wind Blows." ("New Left Notes" June 18, 1969). This statement outlined the basic stance of Weatherman: Marxist-Leninist in content but with strong advocacy that action not theory would bring about revolution in the United States. This posture was complemented with an international identification to the Cuban revolution and Castro's statement that the duty of a revolutionary is to make revolution.

During October, 1969, Weatherman riots in Chicago resulted in more than 260 arrests for mob action and related charges. A program of armed struggle was finalized during a December, 1969, "War Council" wherein terrorist tactics and political assassination were contemplated. The basic strength of Weatherman was then revealed to be some 300 - 350 nationally and geographically apportioned to the Midwest, New York, and some Northwest.

As its rhetoric of violence escalated, Weatherman leaders increasingly discussed the necessity of an underground operation wherein more than 90 per cent of the organization would be submerged; "affinity groups" of three - five members would function independently. In February, 1970, Weatherman leaders announced a program of "strategic sabotage" with police and military installations as primary targets.

In February, 1970, Weatherman abandoned the SDS NO, 1608 West Madison Street, Chicago, Illinois, and throughout the country entered an underground status.

APPENDIX

REVOLUTIONARY YOUTH MOVEMENT

A source advised that the Revolutionary Youth Movement II (RYMII) faction of Students for a Democratic Society (SDS) held a national conference at Atlanta, Georgia, from November 26 to 30, 1969. At this conference it was decided to form a new organization to be known as Revolutionary Youth Movement (RYM), characterized as a mass anti-imperialist youth organization, said organization being proposed as separate and distinct in form and content from SDS. The "Principles of Unity" adopted by the conference included a struggle against white supremacy and male supremacy; fights against imperialism, anticommunism, fascism and oppression of youth; and support of the right of self-determination of all "oppressed nations," also support of the right of all "oppressed and exploited" peoples "to armed self-defense." It was agreed that RYM would not be a Marxist-Leninist organization; however, source said this was decided in order to indicate an organization broad enough in form to be acceptable to everyone. A temporary National Steering Committee (NSC) made up of eight females and two males was elected to govern RYM until national officers could be elected during the Spring of 1970.

RYM publications have listed the RYM National Office (NO) at Post Office Box 5421 and Post Office Box 77012 C, both Atlanta, Georgia, and a second source has advised that the NO has no office space but would probably be considered as located at Apartment 27, 1067 Alta Avenue, Northeast, Atlanta.

Second source advised that women dominated the founding conference and have continued to dominate NSC meetings to the point that "women's liberation" has apparently become the RYM's principal issue - also that RYM's poor financial condition has resulted in its failure to publish a paper. During early 1970, RYM has decided to cater to the working class rather than youth, since the potential for social revolution lies in workers.

A third source has stated that it was decided at the March, 1970, NSC meeting that RYM women had decided the organization will be molded into a "working class, Marxist-Leninist, revolutionary, anti-imperialist, problack nationalist, people's women's liberation organization."

Many changes can occur in typewriting characteristics in a four-year period, due to the repairs, damages to the type face, and dirt buildup on the type face. For meaningful comparisons to be made, contemporary samples of a suspect typewriter should be obtained for comparison with any questioned typewriter impressions submitted in this case.

Result of examination:

The typewriter impressions, K4351, are the same style of type as the typewriter impressions on Q15 and additional copies of this letter previously submitted in the MEDBURG case. However, some differences were noted in the typewriter impressions on K4351 when compared with the typewriter impressions on Q15. These differences may be due to the four-year difference in time between the preparation of Q15 and the preparation of K4351.

The submitted evidence is retained at the Bureau.

As was previously reported, examination of copies of many of the documents stolen from the Resident Agency at Media, Pennsylvania, March 8, 1971, bore peculiar markings which, according to the FBI Laboratory and representatives of Xerox Corporation, Webster, New York, may enable identification of the Xerox copier which was utilized to produce these documents.

With that in mind, efforts have been made by both our Philadelphia and Newark Offices to obtain sample copies from the Model 660 Xerox copiers in order to identify the machine. Most of the reproduced copies of FBI documents were postmarked Philadelphia, Pennsylvania, or Princeton, New Jersey. SAC, Philadelphia, at the outset indicated many of the lessees of Xerox equipment in the Philadelphia area were individuals or organizations who would not cooperate with the FBI, such as colleges, universities, social and religious groups. He said it would be impossible for FBI Agents to obtain voluntarily sample copies from equipment rented to these people and, accordingly, made arrangements with Xerox corporation so that their personnel during regular servicing of the equipment would make blank copies, identify same, and turn them over to the FBI for examination.

Late on April 12, 1971, Xerox officials advised SAC, Buffalo, that after careful consideration and numerous top-level conferences, it was their combined legal and business judgment that while furnishing the FBI a list of their customers was entirely proper, Xerox corporation should not participate further by actually obtaining samples and thereupon turning them over to FBI Agents. Further, Xerox indicated a telephonic inquiry had been received from one [redacted] who claimed to represent the "Washington Post" in Boston, Massachusetts, concerning Xerox Corporation's connection with the FBI in this matter. [redacted] indicated he knew of the assistance rendered by Xerox to the FBI thus far.

In response to [redacted] inquiry, he was told by Xerox that they did release a list of subscribers of Model 660 machines to the FBI; that they had been asked by the FBI to furnish sample copies from this machine; but they had decided Re: Philadelphia airtels 4/12 & 14/71.

Referenced communications deal with recovered material pertaining to Philadelphia Draft Board Break-ins February, 1970.

A review of the enclosed material does not reflect any actual similarity to the Draft Board Break-in at New Haven in July, 1970. New Haven has never recovered any material from our break. None of the ostensible publicity identified participants have admitted participation and/or given statements as to their action.

Likewise a cursory review of known samples of PHILIP BERRIGAN's handwriting in possession of the New Haven Office, show no similarity between that and recovered material from Philadelphia which could warrant further examination by the Laboratory.

A Revealing Look at the FBI Spy Operation

The documents reprinted here were given to the Crimson by Resist, a Cambridge resistance group. Resist received them from a group calling themselves 'The Citizens' Committee to Investigate the FBI, which stole the documents from the FBI office files in Media, Pennsylvania. The documents reprinted are shown in their entirety, without editing, except for the removal of names and numbers in cases which might be harmful to those who have been spied upon. Some headlines have been added for those documents where clarification of the subject was needed.

These documents were released by Resist "because we believe that the information contained therein constitutes a basic violation of the civil rights both of individuals and groups working for social change."

Re WFO letter to the Bureau dated 11/27/70; Bulet dated 12/9/70; and Philadelphia letter to the Bureau dated 1/19/71.

Referenced WFO letter states Subject is believed attending the University of California at Berkeley, and is known to be an inveterate Marxist revolutionist, and a type of a person that should be watched as she will probably be very active in revolutionary activities.

The 1970-71 University of California at Berkeley (UCB) Student Directory lists — as a senior in the College of Letters and Science at UCB and residing —. Her home address is listed at —.

The cross reference directory for the Berkeley area lists the occupant of — as — phone — is not listed in the 1970-71 UCB student directory, nor is he listed as an instructor in the 1970-71 UCB Campus Directory.

Sergeant HARRY POTTER, Berkeley Police Department, advised his records contain no information concerning either Subject or —.

Sergeant BOB HULL, UCB Police Department Intelligence Unit, advised his files contain no identifiable information concerning Subject or —, however, he will remain alert for any activity of Subject on the UCB campus.

On 2/1/71, CLINTON C. GILLIAM, Registrar, UCB, advised his files indicate — was admitted to the University of California at Berkeley in the month of March, 1970, and as of the period ending December, 1970, had completed two quarters in the College of Letters and Science. Her chief subject of study is listed as —. Due to the policy at UCB, no additional information regarding the Subject can be released without the written release submitted by the Subject or the issuance of a subpoena duces tecum.

San Francisco indices reflect Subject attended a meeting of the Venceremos Brigade on — at — Oakland, California. This meeting was covered by SF 2231-S (reliable-protect) who stated Subject was one of numerous individuals turned down on their applications to be members of the Fourth Contingent of the Venceremos Brigade. During this meeting, there was no discussion of violence or revolution. San Francisco source personally conversed with Subject and received no indication that she was anything other than the average liberal minded student that is common in the Berkeley area.

On 2/5/71, SF 3427-PSI, who is familiar with radical activities in the East Bay Area, advised Subject is completely unknown to him.

Due to lack of information and activities of Subject, San Francisco is not submitting a summary report at this time. Subject is not being recommended for inclusion on the Security Index as it is felt additional investigation is required before this evaluation can be reached.

The subject registered with the American Embassy, Moscow, Union of Soviet Socialist Republics (USSR), as an American citizen visiting the USSR. The registration card was received from the USDS along with other registration cards, classified "Confidential."

For the information of the office of origin, the Bureau instructed that students, teachers, and scientists who were in the USSR at least one month who have not previously been investigated should be selected for investigation. Specifically, the Bureau instructed that United States passport records be checked regarding the individuals meeting the criteria and the information be forwarded to the office covering the residence for further investigation pursuant to current Bureau instructions as outlined in Section 105.G, Manual of Instructions. The office covering the subject's residence is being designated office of origin.

The purpose of conducting investigation concerning the individuals who meet the criteria of student, professor or scientist who visited the USSR for at least one month is to under this program, the interviewing Agents should delineate to the individual the Bureau's responsibilities in the field of internal security, espionage, and related matters. The interviewing Agents should discreetly ascertain if any attempts have been made by the Soviet Intelligence Services to recruit the individual for intelligence purposes either in the USSR or after his return to the United States. The individual should be alerted to the importance of immediately notifying the Bureau of any Soviet attempt to contact him.

Utmost care must be exercised in conducting these investigations to prevent any embarrassment to the Bureau and possibly jeopardize the Bureau's program in countering Soviet Intelligence Services recruitment of students. The motives of the Bureau in investigating American students, professors, and scientists must not be construed as infringements of the American educational system and the pursuit of intellectual freedom.

Set forth in the following pages is background information obtained from the registration card and from the records of the Passport Office, USDS.

On 5/24/70, Mr. ALLAN FERGUSON, Executive Officer, Computer Center, Southeast National Bank, 24th and Edgmont Avenue, Chester, made available for review copies of the statement for checking account #550-723-1, which is in the name —.

These statements dated 3/16, 4/15, and 5/15/70 reflect activity on this account during the 30-day period prior to the date of this statement. A review of the statements reveals the balance in this account has ranged from a high of $1,948.56 on 4/9/70 to a low of $38.19 on 5/14/70.

Mr. FERGUSON stated it is not possible under their computer system to identify the nature and source of deposits and credits to this account. He would, however, make available for review the microfilms containing checks drawn on this account during the periods covered by the above statements.

A review of these checks reflects almost all are signed by — and made payable to cash. All of these checks have a space on the face of the check after the word "for" in which is written the purpose of the check. On the vast majority of these checks the notation in this space contains such language as "operating expenses," "clothing, allowance," "maintenance expenses."

An average of 15 to 20 checks were drawn on this account for each of the three months reviewed. Among these checks the following are noted:

Check dated 3/8/70 in the amount of $300, payable to — for hospitalization of —.

Check dated 1/5/70 in the amount of $100, payable to —.

Check dated 3/5/70 in the amount of $100, payable to — for grant to —.

MRS. — stated — is generally regarded as a "radical" for this and similar type action.

payment or monthly authorization is $300 or more, it must be approached on a much higher level. Note: If an informant is to travel outside our division and we initially go in and request expense payment of less than $300, it can be handled simply while the services payment can be requested later based on what he has produced.

9/10-11/70 produced some comments:

In disseminating reports recommending for the SI it is preferable to designate and disseminate to Secret Service immediately and put the FD-376 (the buck slip to Secret Service) on the second Bureau copy.

There was a pretty general consensus that more interviews with these subjects and hangers-on are in order for plenty of reasons, chief of which are it will enhance the paranoia endemic in these circles and will further serve to get the point across there is an FBI Agent behind every mailbox. In addition, some will be overcome by the overwhelming personalities of the con acting agent and volunteer to tell all — perhaps on a continuing basis. The Director has okayed PSI's and SI's age 18 to 21. We have been blocked off from this critical age group in the past. Let us take advantage of this opportunity.

In payments to informants, if the total of services and expenses to an informant is less than $300 in a lump sum payment or per month, our request for such payment is handled within division 5. If the lump sum

BLACK STUDENT GROUPS ON COLLEGE CAMPUSES
RACIAL MATTERS
BUDED: 12/4/70

Increased campus disorders involving black students pose a definite threat to the Nation's stability and security and indicate need for increase in both quality and quantity of intelligence information on Black Student Unions (BSU) and similar groups which are targets for influence and control by violence-prone Black Panther Party (BPP) and other extremists. The distribution of the BPP newspaper on college campuses and speakers of the BPP and other black extremist groups on campuses clearly indicate that campuses are targets of extremists. Advance information on disorders and violence is of prime importance. We must target informants and sources to develop information regarding these groups on a continuing basis to fulfill our responsibilities and to develop such coverage where none exists.

Effective immediately, all BSUs and similar organizations organized to project the demands of black students, which are not presently under investigation, are to be subjects of discreet, preliminary inquiries, limited to established sources and carefully conducted to avoid criticism, determine the size, aims, purposes, activities, leadership, key activists, and extremist interest or influence in these groups. Open individual cases on officers and key activists in each group to determine background and if their activities warrant active investigation. Submit results of preliminary inquiries in form suitable for dissemination with recommendations regarding active investigations of organization, its leaders, and key activists. These investigations to be conducted in accordance with instructions in Section 87D of the Manual of Instructions regarding investigations of organizations connected with institutions of learning.

Each office submit by airtel to reach Bureau by 12/4/70, a list of BSUs and similar groups by name and school which are or will be subjects of preliminary inquiries. This program will include junior colleges and two-year colleges as well as four-year colleges. In connection with this program, there is a need for increased source coverage and we must develop network of discreet quality sources in a position to furnish required information. Bear in mind that absence of information regarding these groups in any area might be the fault of inadequate source coverage and efforts should be undertaken immediately to improve this coverage.

A prior inquiry or investigation of a group or individual is no bar to current inquiries and inquiries should not be postponed until submission of airtel due 12/4/70. Initiate inquiries immediately.

I cannot overemphasize the importance of expeditious, thorough, and discreet handling of these cases. The violence, destruction, confrontations, and disruptions on campuses make it mandatory that we utilize to its capacity our intelligence-gathering capabilities.

Above instructions supersede instructions in Bureau letter to all offices 1/31/69, same caption.

The Chief is certain that no one lives in the garage but he has seen "hippie types" frequent the garage. He will remain especially alert for the appearance of the subjects, and he will contact his sources and alert them concerning the subjects.

Yet there Did he have an unyielding devotion to the freedom of speech for Dolph Drog, more than freedom to live for the Vietnamese. Dolph Drog's dark conduct denied that second freedom, and people came to Sanders Theatre to protest that denial of rights.

Decision to punish will reflect what is already an established bias for the rights of academicians to undisrupted peace and quiet over the rights of Third World people to life itself. This bias can be seen in Harvard's continuing sponsorship of Henry Kissinger, and those at Harvard who would eagerly take his place. The two rights come into conflict.

The questions are of enormous subtlety and difficulty. All this will, we sadly expect, be buried over by the CRR, which will inveigh against "student thugs" with the ardor of a blinded Cyclops. And it will be the CRR, an isolated illegitimate arm of repression, which — in disciplining students for being against the war — will strike the real blow to free speech at this University.

THE REAL VICTOR

To the Editors of the CRIMSON:

The real victor in the disruption Friday evening. It seems to me, was the South Vietnamese government with its American apologists. Those who chanted and shouted down the speakers enabled a politically and morally bankrupt cause, a cause that something like three quarters of the American electorate has at last rejected, to wrap itself momentarily in the tattered cloak of intellectual freedom. In the present climate of opinion this kind of "radical" action becomes a repulsive form of bullying instead of a desperate attempt to be heard or to change the course of policy. It is ominous in other ways too. Just what degrees of difference in the interpretation of American foreign policy will this form of radicalism be able to tolerate in the future? And in what parts of the university? Such questions arise even when one holds that the radicals, among whom there is great variety, were in this instance responding to provocation and, in the larger context, to dangerous and evil trends.

'THE FUHRER HIMSELF'

To the Editors of the CRIMSON:

Last evening at dinner I encountered an SDS member who was passing out flyers urging that speakers who supported the President's peace policies be silenced by "anti-war" radicals. I asked him whether or not he supported free speech; and here is his answer: "I'm for it, as long as it isn't counterproductive."

The Fuhrer himself could not have put it more eloquently. But perhaps it is no coincidence?

SUMMARY OF ACTIVITIES CONNECTING HER WITH THE MEDIA RESIDENT AGENCY BREAK-IN

On August 2, 1969, Local Boards 20 through 24 Selective Service System, 881 Gerard Avenue, Bronx, New York, had been entered during the previous night by unknown individuals who vandalized the records of this office including cutting, tearing, and scattering many Selective Service files. On August 15, 1969, it was reported that offices of Local Boards 59-64, 165-08 Jamaica Avenue, Jamaica, New York, had been broken into and vandalized. Most of the files had been scattered, torn, and were destroyed throughout the office space. On the afternoon of August 21, 1969, eight individuals who called themselves [REDACTED] held a press conference at the Overseas Press Club, New York City, New York. During the press conference, one male member of these eight advised he and seven others were responsible for the destruction of the Selective Service files on August 1, and August 15. An agent of the FBI attended this conference and reviewed a copy of a document entitled "For Immediate Release", which stated that eight persons were responsible for break-ins of these two Local Board Offices. The name of [REDACTED] appeared as one of these eight persons with the following descriptive data:

During the night of February 6, 1970, to February 7, 1970, entry was made of the Selective Service Offices of three locations in Philadelphia.
The records of these offices were substantially damaged and in some cases, removed entirely. The three addresses that were broken into were:

1421 Cherry Street,
Philadelphia, Pennsylvania

3701 N. Broad Street,
Philadelphia, Pennsylvania

3207 Kensington Avenue,
Philadelphia, Pennsylvania

At the first address, there were ten local boards located within the eleventh floor of a Government leased building. At about 2:00 AM in the morning, a General Services Administration guard, while making his rounds, noticed an unidentified white male in the draft board offices. The Philadelphia police were immediately called and subsequently [redacted] was found hiding in the mens rest room. At this local board it was discovered that many files had been removed from the drawers and strewn on the floor. There was evidence that a bleach or a similar solution had been poured all over these files.

Due to confidential information received by the Philadelphia Police approximately two weeks previous to February 7, 1970, and due to the fact that three local boards had been broken into that night, Federal search warrants were authorized for the search of residence of [REDACTED] and for a 1965 Chevelle Station Wagon parked on the street in front of this residence.

Pursuant to the search warrant in the house was found a large quantity of documentary evidence indicating plans had been under way for the above noted action in Philadelphia since at least the middle of December, 1969, and that all three of the above-described locations had been under surveillance by teams at all hours of the day and night for about one month prior to February 7, 1970.

On April 27, 1970, a hearing was held for [REDACTED] before Magistrate Benjamin Cox at the Central Detective Bureau, Philadelphia, on the charges of "Burglary, Illegal Entry, and Destruction of Records." [REDACTED] was held for court on a single charge of "Illegal Entry" and a nominal bail was continued.

On the night of July 9-10, 1970, entrance was gained into a building in New Haven, Connecticut, which houses local boards 8, 9, and 10, Selective Service System. Registration cards, cover sheets, and classification records of registrants of the three boards were damaged or carried off.

One latent fingerprint found on this letter was identified as the fingerprint of [REDACTED] FBI number [REDACTED]

[REDACTED] The handwriting on this letter was also compared to known handwriting of [REDACTED] and was found by the FBI Laboratory to be written by the same person, [REDACTED]

b7D

[REDACTED] concentrated on the plot that led up to the arrest itself of the individuals she represented. Her speech was informative but included information that could have been easily obtained from a newspaper or magazine article.

[redacted]
On March 22, 1970, [redacted] made a speech at the St Thomas Aquinas Center, University of Connecticut, Storrs Connecticut entitled "Radical Resistance; The Berrigans and the New Catholic Left". The speakers were [redacted]
[redacted]
[redacted]

b7C

[redacted] speaking first, described herself as [redacted] of the New England Chapter of the Berrigan Defense Committee and stated that she is located at Boston University. She also stated that she was a member of the New York Eight. In her talk she attempted to justify the concept of resistance and the tactics used by those in the resistance movement. She described the Catholic New Left as one segment of a larger movement although a specialized one. She stated that people should not be shocked when they hear of priests and sisters being indicated by the Government for alleged plots to bomb or kidnap. People should be shocked at the conduct of the United States Government in bombing and kidnapping innocent Vietnamese people and destroying their crops. She seemed to feel there was justification in a resistance movement which seeks to destroy property of companies who profit from making articles as the napalm and other instruments of killing. She also stated that there is justification in destroying property such as draft board records because these are what she termed as "destructive property" in the sense that they destroyed human lives. She also felt there was justification in destroying property of Government type secret police as this was also harmful to the people.

[redacted] then summed up the activities of the New Catholic Left and the resistance movement since November, 1970. She stated that one group known as the Hoover Vacuum Conspiracy conducted raids on draft boards in New Jersey. There have also been raids on other draft boards since November. She then stated that the latest activity and the most interesting had been the recent break-in at the Media, Pennsylvania Office of the Federal Bureau of Investigation. Since that activity, [redacted] stated substantially all of us have been visited and called frequently by our agent friends asking us if we did care to talk to them about that activity.

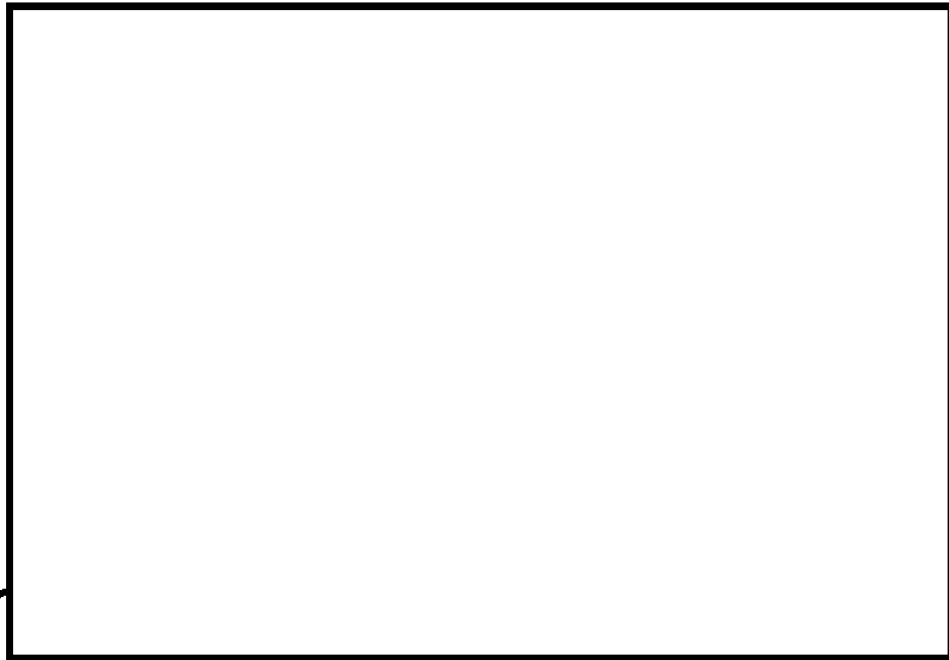

[redacted] stated the Government in its indictments chose individuals very carefully to help their case. Besides priests and sisters, the Government indicted a physicist to show the technical knowledge necessary for a bomb plot and a person who occasionally goes to a farm to show the conspiracy in picking a place to test their bombs. The Government also indicted an Asian that's an East Pakistani, which gives to the conspiracy a third world constituent although not real and the East Pakistani hardly knows the other defendants. In indicting the East Pakistani, the Government will also, no doubt, seek to show that five innocent people have been misled by this foreign influence. [redacted] indicated that she had been in a draft board raid on one occasion. Also, [redacted] called attention to one [redacted] present during her talk, who she stated was a member of the Boston Eight and had been in on a raid on a draft board in Boston. She also stated one [redacted] presently awaiting sentencing in connection with a protest against Dow Chemical Company, again place was not specified. [redacted] stated that resistance could be shown by interested people by not paying income taxes and also by refusing to enter military service. She praised the raids on draft boards and the spilling of blood on draft board records by the BERRIGANS and associates. Persons, [redacted] felt, should be willing to suffer consequences in committing crimes of resistance even the possibility of death. She said that no amount of indictments will deter the resistance movement from its goals that the war is the issue. [redacted] stated she had made a visit to the BERRIGANS in prison that same day, March 22, 1971, and that she is often a visitor to the BERRIGANS in prison.

I understand that all appointments are probationary for a period of one year during which I must demonstrate my fitness for continued employment by the Federal Bureau of Investigation. ALL INFORMATION CONTAINED
HEREIN IS UNCLASSIFIED
DATE 7-12-84 BY SP5 RJG/AMJ

— Jm XEROX
MAY 18 71

Reurairtel dated 4/16/71 advising of the work shifts you propose to set up in connection with this investigation both for Agents directly involved in MEDBURG and other Agents in the Philadelphia Division including those on temporary assignment there from New York, Baltimore, Newark, Jackson, and Indianapolis.

The work shifts which you propose are agreeable effective 4/18/71. Since those official work shifts will in some instances involve over eight hours per workday officially scheduled and will also involve over 40 hours per week officially scheduled, they should be considered as overtime shifts. In addition, there will be some eligibility for night differential pay and Sunday differential pay for related work hours. Based on the work shifts which you set out in your airtel, it is estimated each Agent would be entitled to 54 hours overtime pay ($8.31 per hour), related night differential (10 per cent of basic pay rate) and related Sunday pay differential (25 per cent of basic pay rate). Even allowing for the savings realized by removal of the Agents involved from premium pay "fringe benefits," it is estimated this would create an additional cost factor per pay period in excess of $30,000. In this connection your attention is called to the fact that in no instance may the total of basic compensation and premium compensation exceed the basic compensation of the last step of Grade GS-15.

You should insure that information concerning the work hours both regular and overtime, including information concerning night and Sunday differential eligibility, is promptly furnished on a regular basis to the offices from which you have men presently in your Division on temporary assignment from New York, Baltimore, Newark, Jackson, and Indianapolis in order that proper postings may be made on the Time and Attendance Cards of the Agents involved on a timely basis. Since this involves the placing of these men on a regularly scheduled overtime work effective 4-15-71, they will be removed from the list of those eligible for premium pay benefits (fringe pay) for such time as the work shifts mentioned in airtel are in operation. You should keep the Bureau posted on any changes in these work shifts.

In view of the high additional costs of these work shifts, you and SAC Moore must follow this situation closely to insure that these working hours may be reduced to normal work shifts at the earliest possible date and the men involved return to regular fringe benefits for unscheduled voluntary overtime.

Result of examination:

Not all of the documents listed above were stapled. The staples in those that were stapled were removed and protected for examination. Four types of staples were represented as follows:

1. Flat wire staples, Swingline SF-1, Ace #2025 Standard, Ace #400 Standard, Ginnco #210. Such staples are used in Swingline, Aceliner, Ace Pilot and all staplers classified as standard office staplers.
2. Round wire staples with flat cut-off ends. It was not possible to find locally, staples of this type. They are, however, comparable in size to the flat wire staples in (1) above and useable in all staplers classified as standard office staplers.
3. Round wire staples with chisel points, Swingline #77, for use in Swingline #77 Staplers (only two such staples, Q116 and Q120, appeared).
4. Heavy gauge flat wire staple, manufacturer and type of stapler in which used not yet determined (only one such staple, Q150, appeared).

By toolmarks comparisons it was possible to group staples from the documents noted as having been stapled with the same stapler. At least 20 different staplers are represented. Those documents, the staples of which were identified stapled by the same stapler, are as follows:

Stapler	Staples Identified	Type of Staple
1.	Q17 and Q28 (1)	Flat wire
2.	Q19, Q25, Q26, Q27, Q30	Flat wire
3.	Q28(2), Q31(1), Q53, Q54, Q58 Q59, Q62(2), Q64, Q74, Q76, Q78	Round wire, flat cut-off
4.	Q31(2), Q114 (1)	Flat wire
5.	Q35, Q41	Flat wire
6.	Q36, Q37, Q43	Flat wire
7.	Q42, no identification	Flat wire
8.	Q46, no identification	Flat wire
9.	Q47, no identification	Flat wire
10.	Q52, no identification	Round wire, flat cut-off
11.	Q62 (1), no identification	Round wire, flat cut-off
12.	Q65, Q69, Q79, Q81	Round wire, flat cut-off
13.	Q73 (1), Q73 (2)	Round wire, flat cut-off
14.	Q80, no identification	Round wire, flat cut-off
15.	Q114 (2), no identification	Flat wire
16.	Q115, Q119	Flat wire
17.	Q116, Q120	Round wire, chisel point
18.	Q117, no identification	Flat wire
19.	Q118, Q119, Q121(1), Q121 (2) (Some similarities noted between Q117 and above group)	Flat wire
20.	Q132, Q133, Q134, Q140	Round wire, flat cut-off
21.	Q141, no identification	Round wire, flat cut-off
22.	Q150, no identification	Flat wire, heavy gauge

Some of the stapled documents were stapled with two staples. For identification purposes they were marked, for example Q28(1) and Q28(2), Q31(1) and Q31(2), etc. The two staples in Q28 and Q31 were of a different type and stapled with different staplers. In specimen Q73 it was possible to identify the two staples with the same stapler. In specimen Q121 it was also possible to identify the two staples with the same stapler. The staples in Q62 were of the same type but stapled with different staplers. The same is true of the two staples in Q114.

All of the staples are being retained in the Laboratory and are currently being compared with staples used to staple the known documents submitted for comparison.

SAC MacLennan, Pittsburgh Office, called today and advised that his office at [redacted] has been obtaining, through the cooperation of prison authorities, correspondence to and from certain inmates who could be in touch with individuals responsible for the break-in at the Media Resident Agency. One such inmate is [redacted] who is doing time following conviction of the break-in at [redacted]

MacLennan stated that prison officials have turned over some correspondence between [redacted] Rochester, New York. Based upon information set forth in this correspondence, it appeared that [redacted] is identical to Special Agent (SA) [redacted] who is assigned to the Rochester Resident Agency, Buffalo Office.

MacLennan discussed this with SAC Brouse in Buffalo who in turn telephonically contacted SA [redacted] SA [redacted] readily acknowledged corresponding with [redacted] since he is trying to develop a rapport with her [redacted] SAC MacLennan advised that their review of the correspondence indicates there appears to be no impropriety on SA [redacted] part and that the theme of his correspondence is to disillusion her with respect to her new left activities.

It is noted SA [redacted] was the case Agent who handled the [redacted] matter in connection with [redacted] break-in. SAC Brouse is obtaining a memorandum of explanation from SA [redacted] and this will be expeditiously furnished to the Bureau.

ACTION: You will be kept advised of pertinent developments.

Our Philadelphia office has submitted copies of three serials which were stolen from the Media Resident Agency, which copies were not previously available for submission to the Bureau. Serials consisting solely of informant contact memoranda pertain to a fugitive-deserter matter, an illegal gambling business matter, and a Delaware County, Pennsylvania, criminal activities matter. The serials relating to the fugitive-deserter and the illegal gambling business matter contained no data sensitive or otherwise which would cause embarrassment to the Bureau. The serial dated February 18, 1971, captioned [REDACTED] sets forth information received from an informant indicating that [REDACTED]

From: The Citizens' Commission to Investigate the FBI

Subject: Public appearance by members of The Citizens' Commission to Investigate the FBI, St. Stephen & The Incarnation Church, 16th and Newton, N.W.; 7:00 p.m., Thursday, April 29, 1971

On Tuesday, April 27th, the following message was telegraphed to the co-ordinators of The Peoples' Coalition For Peace and Justice in Washington, D.C.:

REQUEST CONSENT FOR MEMBERS OF THE CITIZENS' COMMISSION TO INVESTIGATE THE FBI TO APPEAR AT YOUR PEOPLES' LOBBY MEETING, THURSDAY EVENING, APRIL 29, TO REPORT ON INFORMATION REVEALED THROUGH STUDY OF FILES REMOVED FROM MEDIA OFFICE MARCH 8, 1971. POST LARGE "YES" OR "NO" RESPONSE IN NINTH FLOOR MIDDLE WINDOW ON VERMONT AVENUE SIDE OF BUILDING BEFORE 9:00 AM, WEDNESDAY, APRIL 28. IF "YES" WILL CONTACT LATER FOR SECURITY AND POSSIBLE SANCTUARY ARRANGEMENTS.

THE CITIZENS' COMMISSION TO INVESTIGATE THE FBI

Their affirmative response of consent was conveyed, as requested, this morning. Therefore, we invite your coverage of tomorrow's meeting at which time some members of The Citizens' Commission to Investigate the FBI will publicly take responsibility for the removal of files from the FBI office in Media, Pennsylvania on March 8, 1971.

We were prompted to make this public appearance after learning of the remarks made Friday by Attorney General John Mitchell on the danger to national security posed by "domestic subversives." We agree with John Mitchell that the right of the public to protect itself is "implicit in the Constitution's very existence," but we believe that right is best upheld when citizens can scrutinize and control their own government and its agencies.

Because we believe the FBI has betrayed its democratic trust, we wish to present evidence for this claim to the open and public judgement of our fellow citizens.

We also wish to reiterate two other reasons for our action on March 8th:

-- our belief that a law and order which depends on intimidation and repression to secure obedience can have but one name: tyranny,

-- our belief that democracy can survive only in an order of justice, of an open society and public trust.

Our initial report tomorrow will cite some examples of the nature and extent of surveillance carried on by the FBI, particularly against groups like The Peoples' Coalition For Peace and Justice and others who have come to Washington this week to dramatize their demands for an end to the war, and for the necessity of a more just, humane and peaceful society.

We will again, tomorrow, invite others to join us in building such a society that does not wage nor threaten war, which distributes human and material resources fairly, and which operates on the basis of justice rather than fear.

We will also report on the activities of other members of The Citizens' Commission to Investigate the FBI who are taking it upon themselves to investigate the extent of illegal practices carried on by the 59 field offices of the FBI. Practices such as eavesdropping, entrapment, and the use of provocateurs and informers.

Dear [] —

Thank much for answering, even tho. I'm still in the dark about Providence. Against my better judgment, I'm becoming optimistic about that as time goes on. And if they take [] to court + I still haven't heard anything, I'll feel like they've dropped it. And after Sept. 6th I will be considerably harder to find.

[] says, hello (as does [] and that you write a good letter (I agree). She says to tell you that she's highly insulted that you think she works for the KGB (am familiar with them, yes): she gets her money from [] + not from those revisionists (isn't that the term?) in Moscow. I agree with you, tho, that ripping off a KGB office would be a much riskier proposition than the local variety, + that I doubt I would surface afterwards. (You might be interested to know that I wrote letters of protest to the Soviet embassy when they invaded Czechoslovakia, + went down to the USSR mission to the UN in NYC to tell them in person. Did the same when they locked up a bunch of people for passing out leaflets in Red Square protesting the invasion.) However, two wrongs don't make a right; + tho it's better to have a moderate amount of 1984 stuff around than a whole lot of it (as in USSR, Greece, Brazil, etc.), it still doesn't appeal to me to be watched at all by Big Brother.

Some of the disfavor [] + I ran into in [] was because we didn't go along with the show, but not all. For example, one of the matrons warned the other inmates about us, with loved detail, before she had ever set eyes on us. The same lady is firmly convinced that [] + I masterminded the Columbus Day bombings from the jail. That jail also ill-treats others: a forger who was with us while trying to get bail was observed playing scrabble with [] + I, so the matron called her lawyer and bondsman + told them not to bail her out because she was "being influenced by radicals". On another occasion the jail matrons ~~at~~ wrote reports to the NYS parole board to try + get a woman's parole violated because the woman had spoken to the matron about her racist attitudes. I could go on + on. It would be nice to feel that [] stopped mistreating people when the FCC was transferred, but I fear it's untrue. As for other places in the land of the free: [] had her head banged against a police wagon once in Hartford + was given a concussion which gave her great pain + temporary blindness; + I was once beaten + tear gassed (at the range of six inches) by the Boston police, emerging with bruises + a cracked rib. In both cases, not only were our own actions completely nonviolent, but they weren't even illegal. While my brother was working in Miss. m. 64-65, several of his friends were badly beaten by the Miss. Highway Patrol. So it isn't like it's impossible to come to harm at the hands of the law here.

Around here, the saying "Be good" is usually altered to "Be good ... or be careful." Sometimes you just have to tell people to be careful since you know they won't be good, like a friend of mine who was recently released: I know she's going to continue to shoot dope - I just hope she's careful enough not to O.D. now that her system is clean, and careful not to get busted.

Life goes on. Am changing employment from [] job in being on [redacted] Expect it will be fine. I've been in [redacted] law-abiding here: have only been put in segregation once, + only for four days. The other 3 haven't gotten into any trouble at all. [redacted] really enjoys her job [redacted] [redacted] is still taking courses at Temple Univ. in Philly, + working on the inmate paper here. I've made several new friends as well as renewing some old friendships. My two roommates are nice - one has two yrs. for checks and the other fifty years for kidnapping + murder. We get along quite well.

You know, at your suggestion I've spent some time considering
"all the alternatives" but so far don't seem to arrive any place different. I think any harm that you people prevent is outweighed by the actions resulting from the bitterness, rage, + helpless feelings of those who emerge from places like this. Not to mention the harm done to those locked up by the prison environment.
So I'm not prepared to rat on anybody. Wouldn't have ratted on myself except for this hang-up I have on personal honesty.

Have you considered all the alternatives carefully? Aside from hating to see anybody in your job, I especially hate to see you in it. Please resist becoming just another unfriendly, wooden-headed asker of questions, devoid of all humor. Also hate to see you in a situation so restrictive that it's hard to be yourself or express many of your feelings. It's not that I think your colleagues are evil men. I feel like a button I once saw saying "Be kind to Communists - they're misdirected but they mean well". (Found out the other day that an old friend of mine had joined the CPUSA. How about that: I finally know a card-carrying Communist! Hopefully, he'll get over it in time. He's young + easily influenced.)

Glad to hear that the mail to officials which is supposed to be uncensored is really uncensored. This letter here will be censored as I'm writing to the unofficial [] and not the official [], not particularly wanting to write you at your office. And of course your letter to me was opened + censored before I got it. Ordinarily it takes less than 1 1/2 weeks for a letter to go from Rich. to here, even granted our splendid isolation.

I still think that whole Harrisburg bit is the product of an informer's fertile imagination. I don't know []

[] I don't know [] very well. I know Phill Barrigan, [] better, and there I feel sure you all are barking up the wrong tree. Esp. [] are definitely pacifists, not only as a matter of tactic, but personally committed to nonviolence.

Those Media, Pa. people are really telling on you all. You should be eternally grateful to [] + his sharp eyes. I bumped into our local agent this week + teased him gently about Media. He replied by asking "how many of them were there?" etc. Almost like he expected me to tell him.

I seem to have written a lengthy letter. Apologies if I've bored you. I won't be mean enough to say "Wish you were here" or "Don't take any wooden transoms". But do be good (not to be equated with being legal). I send you spring sunshine and freedom -

(If KGB is not a familiar term, see D.C.)

Now you're thinking that that's immaterial and your right. Nevertheless, I think our society has not deteriorated to the immoral extent your assertions imply. Time, I suppose, will tell, but my feminine intuition tells me I'm right.

Incidentally, I received your letter same censoring. What are they trying to do vitiate your crusade? Verily, it does appear that prison^{reform} is here!

SECURITY MATTER - COMMUNIST

"Washington Post" article 4/12/71 concerning Bureau documents stolen at Media, Pa., reported that [redacted]

[redacted] "was under FBI surveillance" according to one of the stolen documents. Director noted: "Let me have rept. re [redacted] Following is in response to Director's request."

With Director's approval, [redacted] was advised 11/5/70 of allegation that his daughter, while in France, had become interested in world communist movement and that we wanted to alert him of our intended inquiry in which we would be most discreet. He expressed appreciation for our having contacted him and said he fully understood necessity for our inquiry and would like to know, within appropriate bounds, of the results. In 3/71 we learned that three documents relating to the [redacted] case had been stolen and, although they did not disclose subject to be [redacted] one document recorded the names of [redacted] and his wife as parents of the subject. Consequently, by Gray to C. D. Brennan memorandum 3/23/71, we recommended, and the Director approved, that we have [redacted] personally contacted, our relations with him having been limited but cordial.

Jones to Bishop memorandum 3/25/71 reports that [redacted] was personally seen by Inspector [redacted] 3/24/71. [redacted] was told that our inquiry of his daughter had been completed and we developed no further pertinent information but that such advice was not to be construed as a "clearance." He was told of the theft of the three documents concerning his daughter and that, although [redacted] is not revealed in them, the thieves may learn of his connection and attempt to embarrass him. [redacted] expressed appreciation for our contacting him and stated he felt it prudent to assume the thieves would connect him and they would attempt to benefit thereby. He asked what action FBI would take if inquiry is received by news media concerning stolen documents relating to his daughter and was told our general policy is to make no comment. He stated he would agree with that policy and asked only that if FBI wishes to make some other statement he be advised. He said he would not be in a position where he could logically make no comment should he receive an inquiry and said in all probability he would state merely that FBI had advised him of the inquiry concerning his daughter and had told him of the theft of the documents.

A damage assessment concerning the three documents was previously submitted and by the Director's letter to the Attorney General (AG) 3/25/71 we furnished pertinent facts in this case and alerted the AG to the documents relating to [redacted]

Although the "Post" article of reference did not refer to a specific document, another "Post" article, 2/11/71, highlighted Bureau's interest in [redacted] and indicated that an 11/19/70 one-page letter from the PH Office to the Bureau was involved. Attached as Exhibit A is a copy of that letter, which is noted to be two pages in length. Also attached as Exhibits B and C are copies of the other two documents. We noted potential for the thieves releasing to the news media and/or others copies of the other two documents, as well as second page of Exhibit A.

Dear

And thank you for answering. This is a delicate path we tread, motivated by friendship and limited by ethical restrictions. Your optimism, I feel, is premature. Again I suggest you assume a slightly pessimistic outlook - solely based on my having seen how long it takes various government agencies to act (my own of course included).

If I write a "good" letter, yours is outstanding. But, if I remember correctly, you're somewhat of a professional author. At least you had an article in the "Journal" - AND seriously not a bad one at that. Your style is witty, fluid and in obvious contrast to mine, effective.

Dear [redacted]

Your letter of the 9th arrived today. Not at all bad, esp. considering that the Post Office seems to be one of those slow-acting government agencies you spoke of. Is hard to be pessimistic when one is getting short (only 4 1/2 months!!), but will try. I also have this completely irrational feeling that nothing could possibly go seriously wrong when we're having such beautiful weather, complete with singing birds, emerging leaves, violets, daffodils, & the ubiquitous dandelion. In moments of realism, however . . .

Thank for the clipping. I don't think [redacted] will carry on with the appeal. (Maybe I will even get my green turtle-neck jersey back from [redacted] exhibit G-5 - or was it G-3? anyway.) I think somebody out there got a transcript, probably Herman. Poor [redacted] - it must have been lots of work.

News of other FCC people: [redacted] is no longer forking silage for Allenwood's cows but is babysitting a boiler. He also plays on one of Allenwood's softball teams, made up of SS violators, it's called "the Dodgers." [redacted] struck it lucky & is about to shift from a tutoring job to being a work-release driver, taking inmates to their jobs. [redacted] is a clerk at Petersburg's dairy, which bores him, but he likes the cows. [redacted] is [redacted] flower-child, taking care of all the flowers on the grounds, * is also directing the prison theater group which is currently rehearsing Waiting for Godot. [redacted] We aren't allowed to write to [redacted] as his caseworker thinks it would "reinforce anti-social attitudes" of his. His supervisor is more realistic: realizes I'm a hopeless case.

I agree that the Media people should not have used people's names. If we had gotten away with the stuff from your office, we were not going to publish names but quietly go around & tell people that they should get out of the rat business. I dislike to see people hurt. Of course they are only releasing their most sensational stuff - it's unlikely that the press would be interested in reading notes on a Dyer Act investigation, or whatever else they got. I generally agree about the press, tho - I also have been written about in a slanted fashion in the past. If Circe were to wave her magic wand at press people, am sure many of them would turn into vultures. Don't talk to me about the BPP - I don't have too much use for any group that much into hero-worship and militarism, leaving aside other thing much less savory that they have been accused of. And I don't like guns (did [] ever get back his five .38 bullets, by the way, or does [] still have them?).

Probably we could have kept our cool a bit better at [] yes. [] is a poor parallel, tho: the men never were strip-searched at all, & that was the main problem between the jail matrons and [] + myself. You would have to see some of those matrons in action to believe them. You will notice that [] + I got along fine with the marshals, & even cooperated with frequent handcuffing, which definitely goes against the grain with me. The marshals were decent, & the jail matrons not.

I paint all sorts of things: walls, ceilings, pipes, stairs, railings, woodwork, etc. So far we have not used any bright green, only grey, white, light blue, and light green. Have been sorely tempted to do creative things to portraits of Nixon, Mitchell, & Carlson which hang in the administration bldg. My boss says that I am doing well, & already is assigning me more difficult work than a few others who have been on the paint crew much longer than I. In time they may even start paying me $10 a month. Right now I'm donating my labor.

Yes, I did try to talk my friend out of shooting dope. Didn't work. She's out there now, & I guess she didn't O.D. or we'd have heard about it by now. About 70% of the population here are heroin junkies. I wish I knew something to do about it, like give them something in their lives which would be meaningful enough to take the place of dope.

As far as people who write checks or steal in other ways, I guess probably most of them will continue to do it as long as you can't get all the nice things advertised on T.V. by working at a $80/wk. job. And none of the anti-crime stuff that I have seen so far has been aimed towards eliminating materialism. So the desire is there, but no legal means of acquiring the stuff for people of limited education & background.

Perhaps if private citizens could be encouraged to "adopt" criminals (instead of buying alarms, installing locks, & hiring dogs coupled with fairly wide refusal to hire ex-cons), people could be sentenced to a family instead of a prison, & would maybe get the idea that somebody gave a damn. As things are now, criminals often feel that they are a "buck" that everybody is trying to pass. I imagine it's hard to care about anybody else's feelings if no-one cares about yours, or even if you're alive or dead. Some people here never get any mail at all. Most of the staff just want to put in their 8 hrs. ~~at~~ with as little effort as possible, & get their paycheck at the end of the week. Most of them wouldn't care if all six hundred of us escaped, as long as they weren't held accountable to the Bureau of Prisons.

[redacted] is in seventh heaven: her mom sent about 10 skeins of different shades of purple yarn (you may recall that [redacted] is a real purple-freak), & she's crocheting hats, scarves, & all sorts of stuff for everybody. Prison has taught her how to ~~do~~ crochet, if nothing else. Also she's learning Spanish. And our "women's study group" has finally gotten under way, which takes up a fair amount of time. (I understand that some women's lib. people in Roch. are also into spray-painting slogans. Hmm...) Where are the great empty expanses of time that prisoners are supposed to have? I'm as busy as I was on the outside. Lots of time devoted to being a jailhouse lawyer: I haven't hung out a shingle but somehow people come to me with all these questions about their cases, plus requests to write letters to judges, parole boards, half-way houses, prospective employers, etc. This evening I had to help a lady who speaks very little English battle the local bureaucracy enough to be able to enroll in an English class (which the Ed. Supr. claims doesn't exist but I know it does because [] teaches it). Some of the Spanish ladies have a rough way to go, esp. the South Americans who don't speak any English at all. None of the staff speak Spanish.

No, the FCC is by no means perfect. To start out with, we got busted. Lots of other things too - I could do a much more ~~thorough~~ complete job of listing the faults of the FCC, draft-board ripoff people, & the movement than you ever could. I can't even co-exist peacefully with my own rappy [] - we have a strong personality clash besides many differing ideas & outlooks. I almost went out of my mind the 3 wks before she got bailed out. Kind of sad - I should be a lot more charitable and understanding towards her than I am. On more general terms, the movement has far too much paranoia, & plays too many cops & robbers games. I could go on

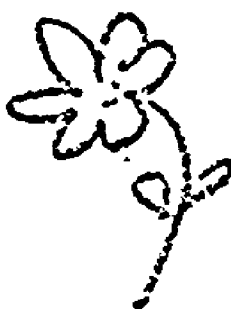

[] have already gotten their parole denials. [] & I expect ours any day. [] didn't even bother to apply. Am not sure about [] Enclosed is a poem of [] which pretty accurately describes the whole scene. The parole board is pretty bad, but then there are seven (count them: seven) men making all of the parole decisions for every federal prisoner in the U.S. which undoubtedly works out to less than five minutes per person - a rather demoralizing thought for those.

with long sentences, as years of their lives are thus decided. Parole proceedings and inequality of sentencing are two of the most embittering aspects of doing time for many people. An official who embezzled over $450,000. in Boston was just paroled after serving less than 1 yr., but a young friend of mine here has done 2 yrs. on a zip-six (0-6 yrs. youth act) for cashing a $106. government check. My roommate has fifty years for the same charge that a woman down the hall has 2½ years for. Does great things for the morale.

[redacted] was just here to visit for a couple of days. I told her she should be more gentle to FBI agents. She agrees in principle, but hasn't yet been able to put it into action. But I'm working on her. Was really good to see her.

Are you tapping the phones of [redacted]? I can't imagine that they would say anything interesting. We didn't even consider burglarizing their offices. (tho we did give some thought to the various military intelligence people. Not enough people-power, tho - as it was we only had time enough to do a mediocre job on your office, + [redacted] barely got a lick + a promise).

Don't work too hard, don't catch the flu (it's going round the prison, alas!), & be assured that spring is indeed coming. May sunbeams follow you -

There are others with me.
We fill and refill each others' lungs awaiting the final ascent and learning that we are, after all,
one prisoner
with one hope for release
